

CLARINDA FOUNDATION AWARDS $39,000 IN SCHOLARSHIPS

On June 13, 2015 Pam Herzberg, Executive Director of the Clarinda Foundation and Scott Brown Scholarship Committee Chair and Foundation Director presented scholarship awards administered by the Foundation to graduating seniors. Herzberg stated "The Foundation was able to present $39,000 in scholarships this year due to the thoughtfulness of individuals at the time of their estate planning. In addition we have several scholarships that have been established by past and current residents that feel it is important to provide for the students of today as they are the future. Other scholarships have been established by prior CHS classes, some have been established as memorials by family members and several groups have established scholarships that know the importance of giving back." Brown stated "The Board feels very privileged and we consider it an honor to award these scholarships." The 2015 scholarships awarded and their recipients:

Vernon J. Baker Educators' Scholarship, awarded to two graduating seniors of the Clarinda High School (CHS). Each award was $1,000. The recipients were: Abigail Brown and Mariah Mullen.
